Purpose. This certification documents the proposer's basis for concluding that its proposed price is fair and reasonable for the stated scope and complies with the applicable solicitation requirements.

1.0 Proposer Certification

The undersigned authorized representative certifies, to the best of their knowledge and belief after reasonable inquiry, that:

1. The proposer has independently developed the proposed price using current, complete, and accurate cost or pricing information appropriate to the goods, services, construction, materials, equipment, and other items included in its response.
2. The proposed price reflects the solicitation's scope, specifications, performance requirements, schedule, service area, quantities, technical standards, labor requirements, and all stated terms and conditions.
3. The proposed price is fair and reasonable based on the analysis and supporting information identified below and is consistent with prevailing market conditions at the time of submission.
4. The proposer has disclosed all assumptions, exclusions, contingencies, allowances, escalation factors, discounts, rebates, credits, and material subcontractor or supplier quotations affecting the proposed price.
5. The proposer has not knowingly included unallowable, duplicative, unsupported, or unnecessary costs. The price does not include costs that the solicitation identifies as ineligible for reimbursement.
6. The proposal was prepared without collusion, coordination, or agreement with another proposer regarding prices, price components, intent to submit, or methods used to determine the proposed price, except for disclosed teaming, subcontracting, or supplier arrangements.
7. The proposer will promptly notify the issuing entity of any material error, omission, changed assumption, or other information discovered before award that may affect the reasonableness or accuracy of the proposed price.

2.0 Basis for Price Reasonableness

2.1 Price Narrative

[Explain how the evidence supports the total proposed price and any significant line-item prices. Address material variances, unique site conditions, permitting, make-ready, environmental, supply-chain, labor, inflation, schedule, and geographic factors, as applicable.]

_____

2.2 Supporting Documents

- Detailed price schedule or bill of quantities
- Labor rates, hours, and staffing assumptions
- Material, equipment, subcontractor, and supplier quotations
- Indirect-cost and profit methodology, if applicable

- Market, historical-price, or independent-estimate comparisons
- Written explanations for significant variances or noncompetitive items

3.0 Assumptions, Exceptions, and Conflicts

[List all assumptions, qualifications, exclusions, alternate pricing, conflicts, or exceptions affecting price. If none, state "None."]

4.0 Records and Verification

The proposer will retain the supporting records in accordance with the solicitation, resulting agreement, and applicable law, and will make them available to the applicant, subgrantee, awarding agency, NTIA, auditors, or other authorized representatives upon request. This certification does not limit the issuing entity's right to seek clarification, conduct an independent price or cost analysis, negotiate, audit, or reject a proposal.

Important: The proposer should review the specific solicitation, applicable state or territory BEAD requirements, award terms, and legal guidance before signing. Where another required certification conflicts with this form, the solicitation requirement controls.
